How to Fatten HOGS and HORSES.

I FIND, by Experience, the best Time to fatten Swine is to begin the First of August, if you have old Corn. Hogs will fat slowly in very cold Weather; they will eat much and fatten but little. If you make a very warm House, they heat in Bed and catch Cold when they come out into the cold Air.

To save Corn, Steep it in Water or Swill till the Corn grows very soft; this opens the Parts. Give them the Corn to eat and the Water to drink in which the Corn has been steeped. The hard dry Corn, a great deal of it passeth through them undigested; this is the hardest Part of the Corn, and that which principally makes the Flour. There is a Tradition, that if you feed one Hog with Corn, the Dung of the first Hog will fat another Hog, and his Dung a third. Altho' I believe the Story to be fabulous, yet it serves to show that the Sense of Mankind is, that in the Manner we feed Swine, there is a great Loss.

I took the Hint of steeping Corn, from the Advantage I once found by some Corn I bought that had been shipwreck'd, had lain in the Water till it was grown soft.

Such is the Difference in Corn and Swine, that it is impossible to fix it absolutely and know certainly how much there is saved by this Method. It is better than grinding besides what we save in the Toll and the Time and Charge of the Carriage; for it is found by Experience that even Bran when steeped in Water a long Time, is much better.

I asked an honest judicious Neighbour of mine, who had Leisure to try this Method of steeping Corn longer and with more Exactness than I had done, How much he thought was saved by it? He said, At least one Bushel in Seven; he believed more. But we will suppose it saves but a tenth Part; then see how much it will save in the whole Colony. Suppose there are in this Colony about Sixty Towns, great and small, new and old. We will suppose Two Hundred Families in each Town, one with another, and each Family to consume or spend as much Pork as will require, one with another, Twenty Bushels of Corn to make the Pork for each Family. Sixty Towns of Two Hundred Families each, makes Twelve Thousand Families, and Twenty Bushels of Corn to each Family, makes Two Hundred Forty Thousand Bushels of Corn; the tenth Part of this is Twenty-four Thousand Bushels. If there be not so many Towns and Families as is supposed, there is much Pork fatted and sent away in Barrels, and many Herds of fat Swine drove away that are not consumed in the Government, enough to make it up. And surely the Saving Twenty four Thousand Bushels of Corn yearly, is worthy of our Care and Consideration.

HORSES.

Since the foregoing was written, a Person of good Credit informed me, that there being in his Neighbourhood a Dealer in Horses, who was famous for Skill in making Horses fat in a short Time; he desired the Jockey to tell him how he did it. The Secret was to mix Indian Corn and Oats together and soak it in Water till it was soft; that in cold Weather he steeped it in a Cellar, that it might be kept from freezing. My informer told me he had made Trial of it, and found it did well, giving it to his Horse in the same Proportion as he was wont to do of dry Provender.

GENOA, May 25.

THEY write from Madrid, that that Capital is to be made a Place of Arms; that they have taken up and punished there, a Number of Robbers and Vagabonds; that all Sorts of Games are prohibited there; and that Publication has been made throughout all the Cities in Spain, that whoever shall be convicted of having entered into any Conspiracy for disturbing the public Tranquility, shall be put to Death, without Hope of Pardon.

Warsow, May 30. Some Advices from Turkey insinuate, that Prince Heraclius, of Georgia, had actually advanced to Trebisonde; and that the Sultan, intimidated by his Success, had declared the Prince and his Countrymen free, independent of the Porte, and exempted from Tribute.

Madrid, May 30. The Marquis de la Mina, Governor and Captain-General of the Province o Catalonia, in order to prevent the pernicious Designs of the Populace of Barcelona, which were chiefly levelled at him, has caused the following Proclamation to be made there, by sound of Trumpet, viz. "You have been Witnesses of what has been fixed up against my Administration: I know the Design of the People to rise against me; but I exhort them strongly to desist from that Project, which cannot but miscarry; otherwise, I am resolved, and the Orders are already given, to burn down the whole City, and to bury you under the Ruins of your Houses, on the least Motion that you make contrary to the King's Authority." Since this Menace, and the Measures taken in Consequence, every Thing has been quiet in that City.

June 1. The several Cities in this Kingdom are daily addressing his Majesty on Account of the late Disorders. They give him the greatest Assurances of their Loyalty, and offer him their Lives, and vast Sums of Money, in Proof of it. His Majesty has returned his Thanks to his People, and the following is a Copy of the Letter which he was pleased to write to the City of Barcelona, the Capital of the Province of Catalonia.

"I, the King, &c. To our well-beloved and faithful Subjects. The Expressions in your Letter of the 21st of April, and the Offers which you make me, give me the greatest Satisfaction, and I receive with Pleasure these fresh Proofs of that Love and Obedience which you have always shewn to my Person. This Proof of your Fidelity merits my Regard, of which you shall receive convincing Proofs, when occasion shall offer!

THE KING.

At Arenjuez, May 12, 1766. Undersigned,

EMANUEL DE RODE."

LONDON.

His MAJESTY'S most Gracious SPEECH to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday, the Sixth Day of June, 1766.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is with the utmost Satisfaction, that I have observed the Wisdom and Moderation which have uniformly guided you through the many important Deliberations, in which you have been engaged, during the Course of this long and interesting Session of Parliament. I persuade Myself, that the most salutary Effects must be the natural Result of Deliberations conducted upon such Principles.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the Supplies which you have so chearfully given for the several Establishments, and for the Support of Public Credit: And you may rest assured, that no Œconomy will be wanting, to render them effectual for the Purposes for which they were granted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The present general Disposition of all the Powers of Europe, seems to indicate a Continuance of Peace: And it is My earnest Desire to preserve the general Tranquility, by fulfilling, on My Part, all the Engagements I am under by Treaties. And on this Foundation, I may reasonably hope and expect the same strict Performance of those Engagements, which other Powers are under to My Crown.

The many Regulations which you have made, for extending and promoting the Trade and Manufactures of Great Britain, and for settling the Mutual Intercourse of My Kingdoms and Plantations in such a Manner, as to provide for the Improvement of the Colonies, on a Plan of due Subordination to commercial Interests of the Mother Country, are the strongest Proofs of your equitable and comprehensive Regard to the Welfare of all My Dominions; an Object truly worthy of a British Parliament.

It shall be My Endeavour, that such Care be taken, as may tend to secure and improve the Advantages which may be expected from such wise and salutary Provisions.

I have nothing further to recommend to you, than that you will exert your best Endeavours in your respective Counties, to enforce the Execution of the Laws, and to promote good Manners and good Order among My People; whose true and lasting Happiness shall be My constant Care, and upon whose Affections I shall always firmly rely.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My LORDS and GENTLEMEN,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Saturday, the Twelfth Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Saturday the Twelfth Day of July next.

June 7. His Majesty was attended Yesterday to the House of Peers by the Duke of Rutland, and the Earl of Coventry; when he gave the Royal Assent to 32 public and private Bills, among which were the following.

The Bill for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum out of the sinking Fund, for the Service of the present Year.

The Bill for raising One Million Five Hundred Thousand Pounds, by Annuities and Lottery.

The Bill for repealing the Duties on Houses, Windows and Lights, and for granting other Duties in Lieu thereof.

The Bill for establishing free Ports in the Islands of Dominica and Jamaica, and for laying certain Duties on Goods, to defray the Expences thereof.

The Bill for repealing certain Duties on Goods in the Colonies, and also on East-India Goods exported from Great-Britain, and for granting other Duties in Lieu thereof.

The Bill for laying additional Duties on Spirits imported, and to prolong the Time allowed for keeping Rum in Warehouses under Bond.

The Bill to indemnify Persons who have incurred Penalties by writing, printing, or ingrossing on unstamped Paper in the American Colonies, contrary to an Act of last Session.

The Bill to continue an Act to allow the Exportation of Salt from Europe to Quebec.

Before a great Man lately resigned, it is said he acknowledged his Readiness on all Occasions to serve the Public, and the best of Princes; but greatly lamented the want of the Assistance in the Administration of that ONLY MAN, who was capable of bringing the Nation into its former Vigour and Strength; and concluded, that if HE came in, he himself would chearfully serve under him.

June 9. We hear the Court of Madrid, greatly disapprove of the Behaviour of their Subjects in the West-Indies, in the late Captures of English Vessels by Spanish Guarda Costas; and that Satisfaction has been promised to be made.

June 10. Private Letters from Madrid mention, that several Noblemen had received Orders to retire to their Estates, on their being suspected by the Court in spiriting up the late dangerous Insurrections in the Capital of the Kingdom.

Some Accounts from Spain inform, that fresh Troubles had broke out in the Province of Estremadura.

It is said, that the Reason of the Earl of Rochfort's preparing to quit Madrid, is, that he does not think himself quite safe there, in the present unsettled State of that Kingdom.

A Morning Paper says, that Mr. P--- on being sollicited to take some Part of the Affairs of the Helm upon him by a certain great Man, who has an Intention to resign, made this Reply.——My Lord, these Legs that I at present make shift to stand on, and the Constitution of my poor Country, labour under the same Infirmity, for they are both very unsound; it will be work enough for me in Future to keep these in good Plight; let Statues on firmer Pedestals administer Physic to the other.

June 12. A Report prevailed Yesterday upon Change, that an Account was just received of some freſh Inſurrections in Spain, and that a great Perſonage, thinking his Perſon in Danger, had retired from the Kingdom till Tranquility ſhall be reſtored.

It is now ſaid, that no Britiſh Ambaſſador is to go to Madrid, till the internal Troubles of that Kingdom are entirely appeaſed.

Laſt Week a Ship arrived at Glaſgow from Maryland, with Wheat and Flour, which lowered the Price of Wheat to 4s. 3d. per Buſhel, and Flour to 11s. per Cwt. and as more Ships were daily expected from America, it is hoped the Prices of both would ſtill be lower.

On Monday laſt, between Two and Three in the Afternoon, the following unhappy Accident happened to his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry Frederick, youngeſt Brother to his Majeſty, juſt after the Races were over at Aſcot Heath. Prince Henry mounting his Horſe with his Brother the Duke of York (who was likewiſe preſent at theſe Races) ſo ſoon as the laſt Heat was over, and they riding with ſome Noblemen along the Courſe, his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry ſet his Horſe on a Gallop; but not perceiving a Chain, that was placed acroſs one Part of the ſaid Courſe, to prevent People riding round, the Horſe ran with ſo much Velocity againſt the Chain, that it was broke down, and the Horſe falling, threw his Highneſs over his Head upon the Ground, where he lay near Twenty Minutes Speechleſs. There being no Surgeon preſent, a Barber bled his Highneſs; ſoon after which he vomited Blood; and a Carriage being provided, his Highneſs was, as ſoon as poſſible, put therein, and carried, in a very weak Condition, to the Duke's Lodge in Windſor Park.

It is ſaid, that certain Diſpoſitions of the French in the Mediterranean will occaſion our Fleet to be conſiderably augmented on that Station.

By the Betſey, Captain Hamilton, from the Havanna, we learn, that every Thing has been amicably ſettled between Admiral Sir William Barnaby, and the new Governor of Cuba, with regard to Flags of Truce, and the Boundaries to be obſerved by the Subjects of both Nations, reſpecting the mutual Intercourſe of Trade and Correſpondence.

They write from Batavia, in Letters of the 22d of October 1765, that the Eruption of the Volcano of Banda Neyra has been attended with the moſt melancholy Conſequences, the Mountain, according to the laſt Advices received, being now on Fire in all Parts, and launching out its ſulphurous Flames and Odours to ſuch a Diſtance, that the Inhabitants, unable any longer to endure it, have found themſelves under the Neceſſity of Retiring.

It is very evident, from the late Honours conferred by his Chriſtian Majeſty on the Count de Marbeuf, that the Deſign of the French is to carry Matters with a high Hand in the Iſland of Corſica, thoſe Honours being generally the Fore-runners of active Military Employment.

According to Letters from Leghorn, Ten Battalions of Turkiſh Infantry, and ſome Squadrons of Horſe, had been embarked at Conſtantinople for the Iſle of Cyprus, where the Inhabitants ſeemed unanimous in their Endeavours to throw off the Ottoman Yoke.

It is ſaid that the real Cauſe of a late Reſignation was owing to the Efforts made by the noble Perſonage in behalf of an unfortunate Exile, and which being unable to crown with Succeſs, he choſe to reſign, rather than be connected with Meaſures, which another took upon him to Guide.

They write from Paris, that two Perſons have abſconded there, ſuppoſed to have been poſſeſſed of very conſiderable Sums, the Property of the late Count Lally.

Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that when General Paſchal Paoli was inveſted with the Character of Doge, the Deputies of the States at the ſame Time renewed the ſolemn Oath heretofore taken at their general Aſſemblies at Corte, never to make Peace with the Republic of Genoa, unleſs conſidered in the Character of a Free State.

It is reported that Two of our Weſt-India Governors will ſoon be ſent for Home.

From the Leyden Gazette. London June 10.

The Portion of the Princeſs Caroline-Matilda betrothed to the King of Denmark, will be paid out of the Ordinary Revenues of the Crown 'Tis ſaid that it will be 100,000l. Sterling, tha the King is authorized to advance this Sum; and that the Parliament will reimburſe it at the Opening of the next Seſſion.—As to the Eſtabliſhments for the Dukes of York and Glouceſter, and Prince Henry Frederick, they will likewiſe be ſettled in the approaching Seſſion of Parliament. The 45,000l. Sterling, which the late Duke of Cumberland enjoyed, will be divided between their Royal Highneſſes; and the two eldeſt will have, one a conſiderable Employment in the Marine, and the other an eminent Poſt in the Army; ſo that the Public will ſuſtain no additional Expence in this Article: But there is a talk of augmenting next Year to a Million Sterling the annual Sum of 800,000l. deſtined for the Support of the Royal Family.

The Report of the Maſſacre of the Spaniards in Mexico ſeems to gain Credit; and it is very confidently ſaid that the Inſurrections in Spain are of a more important Nature than has yet appeared from any of the Public Accounts.

The laſt Letters from Paris mention, that a Body of French Troops, conſiſting of 10,000 Men, were then on their March for the Frontiers of Spain, to be in Readineſs to aſſiſt that Monarch, in caſe of any further Troubles in that Kingdom.

The Regiment of Foot, under the Command of the Hon. Gen. Keppel, marched on Tueſday from Saliſbury to Portſmouth, where they are to embark for America.

Yeſterday Morning two Companies of Matroſſes embarked on board the Tranſport Ships at Woolwich, to proceed round to Portſmouth, where they are to be joined by the reſt of the Troops going to America.

The Iriſh Populace are in a Flame about the Rejection of the Bill, lately ſent over to obtain the Eſtabliſhment of Septennial Parliaments.

July 19. According to Letters from Leghorn, Count de Marbeuf had publiſhed an Ordinance, prohibiting the Inhabitants of the Iſle of Corſica from carrying any other Flag at Sea than that of the Republic of Genoa, on Pain of Seizure and Confiſcation.

And ſome Advices from the ſame Place inform, that ſome foreign Veſſels had been ſeized at Corſica, by order of the French Commandant, for ſupplying the Malecontents with Ordnance and Naval Stores.

They write from Naples, that the Marquis de Squilace has had a Preſent made him of Sixty fine Horſes from the Nobleſſe of that City.

June 21. A Letter from Madrid has theſe Paſſages: "The Commotions, which we flattered ourſelves had been ſuppreſſed by the Flight of the Marquis de Squilace, are now blazing out with ſuch additional Violence, as threatens, in a very ſerious Manner, the total Deſtruction of the Kingdom. A Number of our principal Families talk of retiring, till they ſee the Iſſue of theſe Affairs, and ſeveral have already actually ſet out for England. From America we have received Advices, that every Thing is in the utmoſt Diſorder, ſo that the Affairs of the Spaniſh Monarchy ſeem in every Quarter to be extremely critical. The thinking Part of the People are of Opinion, that the Jeſuits are at the Bottom of all theſe Diſturbances. The Engliſh Ambaſſador's return to his own Court, in the Midſt of all our Confuſions, occaſions a Variety of Speculations."

It is ſaid Commiſſions have been received here, within theſe ten Days, to the Amount of upwards of 140,000l. for Goods, &c. proper for the American Trade.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York will, we hear, be appointed Lord High Admiral, before the King of Denmark's Marriage takes Place with his illuſtrious Siſter.

It is reported that the King of Pruſſia has actually made a formal Demand of ſome Part of our Conqueſts in America, agreeable to what we mentioned in our Paper a Fortnight paſt.

June 23. They write from Vienna, that the Turks have withdrawn Part of the Garriſon of Belgrade, and were filing off Troops from all the Northern Colonies.

Private Letters from Madrid mention, that the Jeſuits were making uſe of all their Intereſts at Court, to exculpate the Society from many ill-grounded Accuſations, relative to having been Abettors of Commotions in New Spain.

It is ſaid that Captain M'Bride, of the Jaſon Man of War, is ſailed upon ſome important Diſcoveries in the South Seas.

It is ſaid that the Great Commoner has lately made the following patriotic Propoſal: That, upon Condition he was permitted to act upon his own Principles for the Public Good, without any one interfering, he would get four or five Noblemen and Gentlemen, whoſe Patriotiſm is as unqueſtionable as his own, who, together with himſelf, would with the greateſt Alacrity, ſerve their Country without Fee or Reward; and that they would not accept or deſire the ſmalleſt Share of the Emoluments belonging to the Offices they would fill in the Adminiſtration, but that the ſame ſhould be entirely appropriated to the Uſe of the Public.

July 24. According to Letters from Madrid, Orders had been ſent from Court, to ſtop the Marching of the French Troops nearer to the Capital, from which it was believed Tranquility was upon the Point of being once more eſtabliſhed.

It is ſaid that ſome Extraordinary Diſpatches for the Government arrived Yeſterday, from the Court of Spain.

Several Young Gentlemen of Rank and Fortune, are preparing to go as Volunteers with Commodore Byron, in his ſecond Expedition round the Globe.

It is ſaid, that ſeveral able Mathematicians and Draughtſmen are engaged, at the Government's Expence, to attend Commodore Byron in his Voyage to the South Seas, in order to make further Diſcoveries in that Part.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 22.

A Letter from the Merchants of London, trading to North-America, to the Committee of Merchants in this City, dated 23d of June, 1766.

GENTLEMEN,

"Referring you to our former Letters, of the 18th of February, and 18th of March, both which we hope you have long ſince received, we now incloſe three Acts of Parliament, which obtained the Royal Aſſent the 6th inſtant, viz.

An Act for indemnifying Perſons who have incurred Penalties in America, on Account of the Stamp-Act.

An Act for repealing certain Duties, and granting others in Lieu thereof, and for regulating ſeveral Branches of the American Trade.

An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Ports in Jamaica and Dominica, for the more free Importation and Exportation of certain Goods and Merchandizes.

The firſt will, doubtleſs, give you particular Satisfaction, as compleating the Repeal of the Stamp-Act. The other two we conſider as the Baſis of an extenſive Syſtem of Trade between Great-Britain and her Colonies, framed on liberal Principles of reciprocal Advantage, relieving the Colonies from injudicious Reſtrictions, and ſevere Duties, enlarging old, and opening to them new Channels of Commerce; and by ſecuring to Great-Britain an increaſing Conſumption of her Manufactures, and, of Conſequence, an Extenſion of her Navigation and Revenue.

You muſt be ſenſible, Gentlemen, that from thoſe Sources have been derived the Power, ſo happily exerted by this Country, on many Occaſions, to guard your Religious and Civil Intereſts; we are therefore perſuaded that you will think it juſt and neceſſary to prevent, by every poſſible Means, foreign States from ſharing in the Advantage of your Commerce, and thereby depriving Great-Britain of the Means to afford you future Inſtances of her Parental Protection.

The Conſideration, that every Degree of Intercourſe between the Britiſh Colonies and the manufacturing Countries of Europe, tends to ſtrengthen their Navigation, and increaſe their Manufactures, at the Expence of our own, will, we are ſure, be a ſufficient Motive to engage you heartily to carry into Execution the Clauſe of the Regulation Act, inhibiting that Intercourſe; this may effectually be done, if ſuch Trade is held, by the principal Merchants among you, to be diſhonourable, the Laws of Reputation being ſtronger than any others; and we flatter ourſelves, that your Friends here will not, on any future Occaſion, be made to bluſh by Inſtances of its Violation.

We muſt obſerve that, notwithſtanding the apparent Neceſſity of new commercial Laws, ſuch hath been the perſevering Oppoſition to theſe ſalutary Meaſures, as to occaſion the Loſs of much Time, and to render it impracticable to obtain theſe Trade Acts in a State of full Perfection; for although they are in themſelves very important, and far more than could be expected, yet they are to be conſidered but as the great Out-lines of a Plan to extend the National Commerce.

Amendments will, doubtleſs, be found neceſſary, and muſt be adopted. In the mean Time, we perſuade ourſelves they will meet a ready Obedience on your Parts.

It is incumbent on us to mention, the happy Union between the Weſt-Indian and North-American Merchants, which has proved of great Advantage in combating the Oppoſition; it took Place early in the Seſſion; and, for the general Good, we ſincerely wiſh it always to ſubſiſt, in its preſent Cordiality.

The Regulation of Paper Currency is poſtponed, in order to communicate to the Colonies, and take their Opinion upon, a Scheme for a general Paper Currency through America, which has been propoſed to the Adminiſtration.

The Conſideration of permitting you to import Wines, Fruit, and Oil, directly from Spain and Portugal, is alſo poſtponed.

Nothing further remains unredreſſed, which was recommended to us in your Memorial, but the Prohibition you are under from exporting Bar Iron to foreign Countries; a Reſtriction conſidered as beneficial to the Iron Manufactories of theſe Kingdoms, to which, from good Policy, Reaſon and Juſtice, a Preference is due; and we beg Leave to recommend your avoiding hereafter, any Applications which may be conſtrued into the moſt diſtant Means of interfering with the Manufactures of the Mother Country; either by furniſhing her Rivals with raw Materials, or by the public Encouragement of ſimilar Manufactures among yourſelves; no ſmall Strength having ariſen to your Opponents, during the late Struggles, from each of theſe Topics.

In a Word, the Syſtem of Great-Britain is, to promote a mutual Intereſt, by ſupplying the Colonies with her Manufactures, by encouraging them to raiſe, and receiving from them all raw Materials, and by granting the largeſt Encouragement to every Branch of their Trade, not interfering with her own.

Having now compleated, ſo far as it can be done this Year, the important Buſineſs for which we united in November laſt, we think it incumbent on us to expreſs our Senſe of the Obligations the whole commercial Intereſt of Great-Britain and America is under to the preſent Adminiſtration; to whoſe Abilities, Attention and Perſeverance, the Progreſs made, in adjuſting theſe great national Points, muſt be attributed; and, we hope, the good Conſequences of theſe Regulations will tranſmit their Names with Honour to Poſterity."

Saturday Night laſt, about Ten o'Clock, Mr. Joſeph Penroſe, of this City, was ſtopped on the Road leading to the Lower Ferry on Schuylkill, as he was going from Town, by a Man with a Gun, who robb'd him of One Dollar, and an old Shilling Bill which was in his Pocket Book; he demanded his Watch, but Mr. Penroſe had none. The Pocket Book with all the Papers, and his Horſe, were found at the Hoſpital Fence, as the Fellow had promiſed Mr. Penroſe.

SIR, Auguſt 7, 1766.

IN your Paper of the 15th ult. I Advertiſed a Conditional SALE of my Houſhold Furniture, &c. which has not ſucceeded to my Wiſh and Expectation; I have therefore ſent you another, which, I hope, may prove more effectual, as well as final, on that Subject.

I am not inſenſible that many of your Readers are acquainted with my Reaſons for ſo doing, and in Juſtification to my Conduct, in the unhappy Difference ſubſiſting between my Wife and me; I am obliged to inform the Public, that I have endeavoured for a Reconciliation, which has been abſolutely refuſed, with a Return of inſulting Language.

Finding myſelf thus ſlighted by my Wife, and inſulted by her Friends, I hereby declare to the Public, that from the Date hereof, I will not Pay any Debts of her Contracting; and do by theſe Preſents forbid any Perſon to Truſt her on my Account: As Witneſs my Hand.

NOTICE is hereby given to the preceding Subſcribers for Lots of Ground, in a Plan laid out for a Town on FELL's POINT, Patapſco River, to pay their ſeveral Arrearages, or they will be proceeded againſt in the Courts of Juſtice (tho' much againſt my Inclination) but, as ſeveral Perſons have ſubſcribed and entered into Articles for Lots on ſaid Point (thereby depriving others) the Rents thereon lie unpaid, and other Matters not comply'd with, I muſt take that Method to put ſuch in Mind of what is Juſtice relating to ſuch Engagements, unleſs timely prevented.

And whereas ſome Perſons, from penurious Views, have been inſidiouſly induſtrious in ſpreading a Report, that the Title to the Lots of Ground on ſaid Point (in Edward Fell) was diſputable, precarious and doubtful, in order to intimidate Strangers, and as much as in their Power prevent every one from taking or improving Lots on the Point; this is to give Notice to the Public, that the Subſcriber will give Attendance on ſaid Point, and will clear up the Title to every generous and unbiaſed Mind to be good. Other Means have been made uſe of to prevent the Settling of Fell's Point, as the Water bad (and better could not be expected) and the Point not healthy, &c. the former has been proved falſe to a Demonſtration, and the latter the Inhabitants in the Courſe of laſt Summer can Anſwer to, how long they may be favour'd with better Health than their Neighbours, Time only can ſhew. There are ſeveral valuable Lots on the Point that have been heretofore ſubſcribed for, which are now free from ſuch Subſcription, and will be Sold or Let to the firſt that offers, by a Power inveſted in the Executrix.

For Terms apply to JOHN BOND, for ANNE FELL, Executrix of Edward Fell.
